COURSE OVERVIEW

The course is specifically designed to prepare teachers for the Teaching Knowledge Test (TKT), which is suitable for both new teachers and experienced educators. The primary objective of the course is to refresh, extend, and deepen their teaching knowledge while introducing them to important approaches and methodologies in education.

- The course introduces participants to the test structure, the main current theories and approaches in education that are central to the TKT exam, enhancing their understanding of teaching and learning concepts.
- The course consists of 36 hours and includes 6 days of teaching sessions focused on preparing participants for all the three modules. At the end of each module participants will write 30 min. practice test which gives them opportunities to do sample test tasks and become familiar with the format of TKT examinations.
- In addition to test preparation, the course offers enriching experiences, such as trips and sightseeing. Participants will have the chance to explore the city of Tbilisi and visit historical places, and even tour to a wine factory.
- Convenient Airport Transfers: To ensure a seamless experience, teachers will be provided with airport transfers, making their travel arrangements hassle-free.
- During the TKT preparation course, accommodation will be conveniently located near the training centre.

ABOUT TKT

TKT is a series of modular teaching qualifications which tests knowledge about the teaching of English to speakers of other languages. This knowledge includes concepts related to language, language use and the background to and practice of language teaching and learning and is assessed by means of language teaching and learning and is assessed by means of take.

TKT offers candidates a step in their professional development as teachers and enables them to move onto higher-level teaching qualifications and access professional support materials.

CONTENT OF TKT

TKT is divided into separate modules. Candidates can take them all, or choose the modules that meet their needs. A certificate is received for each module completed. The core modules are designed to provide a foundation in the principles and practice of English language teaching:

Module 1

Language and background to language learning and teaching;

Module 2

Lesson planning and use of resources for language teaching;

Module 3

Managing the teaching and learning process.

For each module, candidates are required to answer 80 questions by selecting a letter for the correct answer. Candidates are not required to listen, speak or produce extended writing when taking TKT.

WINE TOUR

A Taste of History of Wine Making

Georgian wine is known as the "cradle of wine" because of the country's long and rich history of winemaking. Georgia is believed to be one of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world, with archaeological evidence dating back 8,000 years.

Georgian wine is traditionally made in qvevri, large clay vessels that are buried in the ground.

The wine is fermented and aged in the qvevri, which helps to preserve the wine and gives it a unique flavor and character.

GEORGIAN WINE

Georgian Amber wine, also known as qvevri wine or orange wine, is a traditional style of wine that has been made in Georgia for thousands of years. It is made using a unique process that involves fermenting the grapes and juice in large, egg-shaped clay vessels called qvevri.

Georgia is home to over 500 indigenous grape varieties, many of which are used to produce the country's unique and flavorful wines
